

JEFFREY A. GUDIN, MD

Clinical Instructor, Anesthesiology
Mt. Sinai University School of Medicine
Director, Pain and Palliative Care
Englewood Hospital and Medical Center
Englewood, NJ

Dr. Jeffrey A. Gudin is the Director of Pain Management and Palliative Care at Englewood Hospital and Medical Center, a Mt. Sinai University School of Medicine teaching affiliate in Englewood, NJ. Dr. Gudin completed his residency in Anesthesiology at the Yale University School of Medicine and his fellowship at The Yale Center for Pain Management. While in New Haven, Dr. Gudin also trained in Addiction Medicine and directed a substance abuse treatment center. He remains active in teaching and research, and has lectured internationally on a variety of topics in pain management and addiction medicine.

Dr. Gudin is recognized nationally as a leader in pain management. He is an experienced researcher, consultant, speaker and speaker trainer. He has collaborated with numerous initiatives to enhance the responsible prescribing and safe use of opioid pain medications. Dr. Gudin has dedicated his career to promoting education in pain management. He has presented at the American Pain Society, American Academy of Pain Management, American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation as well as many other national venues. Dr. Gudin serves as a consultant to industry on novel analgesic products and risk management associated with opioids.